

HOSPITALIST AMBASSADOR TRAVEL TEAM

Positions Available Across the Country

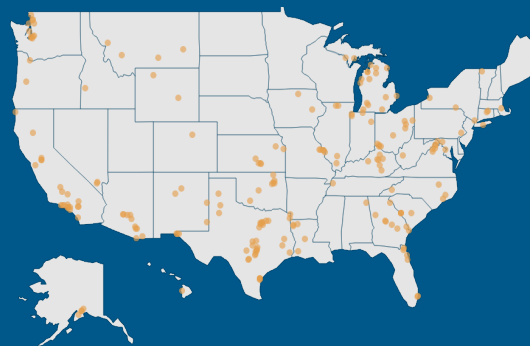

WHAT IS A HOSPITAL MEDICINE AMBASSADOR?

A Sound Physicians ambassador is a physician who provides clinical services at multiple programs across the country. The ambassador has a critical role in contributing to our hospital medicine programs by providing skilled care where we have available shifts or leadership openings. Each ambassador is aligned with the overall performance of Sound Physicians' hospital medicine programs and bridges relationships between hospital administration and medical staff. We have rewarding ambassador opportunities across the country.
